UPCOMING EVENTS

Week 7:

Thursday 31st August : Father's Day Stall

Friday 1st September: Father's Day Breakfast & Student presentation in hall

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

What a great week we have had this week!

Beginning last Friday, we launched Book Week for 2023 with an amazing author visit. Kate and Joel Temple put together a great show for our students. They spoke about the process that they go through as authors and really engaged the children through their obvious love of literature.

Our Book Week Parade was awesome! Thanks to all of our students and their parents for making this such a fun event.

Thanks to all of the parents who attended our Term 3 Parent Committee meeting. I know you will soon be hearing from your class parent about what events are coming up and the details of our Family Fun Afternoon next term.

Currently, I am also looking into Lowes providing the options of winter pants for the girls, a warmer spray resistant jacket and a long-sleeved sports shirt for winter. They will be providing me with some samples over the next few weeks to see if they will work for our community.

To all of our dads and granddads, Happy Father's Day and we look forward to seeing many of you next Friday morning at our breakfast. Don't forget to send in your choice of breakfast for our catering purposes.

Love & Light

Lisa Gerrard

(on behalf of the St Bernadette's staff & students)

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Thank you to everyone for supporting our Movie Night. The children had a great time with their peers.

We raised $726.19 which will go towards our sensory garden. These events demonstrate a strong sense of community and enable the students to enhance their social development.

I look forward to the upcoming disco, organised by the parent committee, where the students and teachers will be able to dance the night away and continue to build strong, healthy relationships, an aspect that is extremely important at St Bernadette's.

Regards

Rebecca Boidin
Assistant Principal

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Sunday 27 Aug 2023

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
Year A

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-20

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

The readings highlight two different but related themes: the character of our understanding of Christ, and our understanding of discipleship that flows from it. Christological reflections reach a climax in the question posed to the disciples: Who do you say I am? In this liturgical context, the same question is posed to us. Who is this one who multiplies loaves of bread, who walks on turbulent waters, who breaks the boundaries that separate insider from outsider? It is none other than the messiah.

When Peter testified to Jesus' identity, it was a relevant religious and political statement, for messianic expectation was a burning question at that time. But what does it mean for the average Christian today? Many believers consider messianic expectation a theological theme that belongs to the past. They feel that it is difficult to get excited about the coming of someone who we believe has already come and gone. If Jesus were to pose this question today, how would we answer?

Like Peter, we too may have good intentions, but when they are put to the test we realise that that was all that they were – good intentions. Still, we should not be discouraged by our weaknesses, for just as Peter's failure did not deter God from entrusting him with power and authority, so our failures need not be obstacles to God's grace in our lives. We watch God entrust the church to individuals who are weak and undependable, and we realise that judgments are inscrutable and God's ways unsearchable.

CHILDREN'S DISCUSSION STARTERS

A beginning point for discussion of this week's Gospel with children:

In today's Gospel, what question did Jesus ask his disciples?

What did Simon Peter boldly say?

Let us take a few moments to think how we might answer Jesus' question.

Who do you say Jesus is?

Jesus is both God and human.

How does believing in Jesus change us?

We pray that Jesus will be with us this week as we live as his disciples. © Creative Ministry Resources Pty Ltd

Gentle Reminder

When using the drive thru option before or after school please ensure that you do not leave your car as the Rangers will consider you parked which can secure a $340 fine. Also be mindful that queuing across the crossing or blocking Evan's Road can also result in a fine.

Children must enter the car from the curb side and at no time be going behind the car or getting in on the drivers side.

Each child takes a different amount of time to get into the car and belt up so please be patient and don't overtake the car in front as this is not safe.

We do not buckle the children into the car so if your child cannot put their own seatbelt on, please consider using the pick up via the back gate option.

As a staff we work really hard to ensure that the children in our care are where they need to be on time. If we are all patient and considerate, drive thru works quite efficiently.

Please don't do three point turns in Cox Crescent. Follow the road right around to the end of the Crescent.

When dropping your child off in the morning please be mindful of the following:

- Please don't park and leave your car after 8.30am.
- Watch out for children walking along the footpath and please don't do three point turns in Cox Crescent.
- Don't block residents' driveways.
- Don't park on the opposite side of the road and allow your children to cross Cox Crescent.
- Children being dropped at Cosch need to be walked in by their parents or carer as staff are arriving at this time and parking in the staff car park.

It's our job to work together to ensure that our students are safe.

Community Of Learners

For the past five weeks, Year 6 have been busy writing and practising speeches for the Voice of Youth competition. All students participated in this, however, three were selected to represent St Bernadette's at the Voice of Youth Rydalmere Cluster Final. We had Ella T, Eva L and Richard Y participate in the Rydalmere Cluster Final on Thursday, 24th August.

The topics for each speech were as follows:

Ella T: Don't change yourself for social media

Eva L: Scoliosis

Richard: Taking a chance

Ella, Eva and Richard spoke brilliantly! We are very proud of their efforts as public speaking is no easy feat.

Congratulations to Eva who achieved second place on the day.

Congratulations to Ella who achieved first place on the day. Ella will now go on to represent St Bernadette's at the Eastern Semi Finals which takes place on Wednesday, 6th September. We are looking forward to cheering Ella on at this event. How exciting for everyone!

Book Week Celebrations

What a busy Book Week it has been and we have had a lot of fun celebrating. The week kicked off with Kate and Jol Temple visiting our school and sharing their amazing books with the children. Not only did they read their books to us, they shared what inspires their writing. They also brought along their pet ibis who we had to make sure did not drop the chips and rotten banana!

Once again we were amazed at the level of creativity and imagination at St Bernadette's, with students parading in wonderful costumes. There were characters from books like Where's Wally, Harry Potter, Dr Seuss and Wings of Fire, Marvel and DC universe, fairy tales and much more.

The Book Fair was open and we had many children pop into the hall to purchase something to add to their bookshelves at home. Our school also received a generous donation from one of our families, thank you, these books will be a great addition to our library.

There was also a guessing competition. The infants children had to guess the amount of “worries” in the jar inspired by the book The Huge Bag of Worries. The primary children guessed the amount of pages in a long novel. Congratulations to our winners:

Tap on and tap off, every time you travel by bus

Our school is partnering with the local school bus operator, Busways, to support a new Tap On and Tap Off education campaign encouraging students who travel by bus to correctly use their school Opal cards. Busways is implementing this campaign throughout Term 3, 2023. This campaign will focus on a simple message – tap on and tap off every time you travel by bus.

Why is tapping on and off on the bus important?

The use of Opal cards is the primary way bus operators and Transport for NSW analyse demand for bus services. When students don't use their Opal cards, their trip is not recorded. Therefore, buses may appear underutilised. Tapping on and off provides better data to plan better bus services.

How can you help?

If your child travels to school by bus, please ensure your child has a valid Opal card (either a School or Child/Youth Opal card). Visit Transport for NSW website to apply for a school Opal card. Students may see onboard bus posters and Busways Community Relation Officers at afternoon loadings. Together let's get students into good habits of tapping on and tapping off with their Opal card. Thank you for your support with this campaign.
